

Sculpture by Niels Jensen

Written by

In addition to his work as photographer and co-producer with Rural Route Communications, Niels Jensen is a cabinetmaker. In the summer of 2010, he received a commission that was a departure from the fine furniture that he usually makes: he was called upon to sculpt an Inukshuk. He installed it over Labour Day weekend in his clients' garden outside of Georgeville.

